

To the Ends of the Earth

Understand

By the end of this unit of study, pupils will be able to:

Sequence the events from the Resurrection of Jesus to the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Lk24: 3 -53)

Know that St Luke wrote a gospel containing an account of the life of Jesus and the Acts of the Apostles about the early Church.

Recognise that Christians believe the Holy Spirit opens their heart to God, helping them to pray and develop habits of good behaviour towards themselves and other people.

Retell the story of the Conversion of Saul (Acts 9:1-19).

Recognise that the description of the fruits of the Spirit is taken from one of St Paul's letters (Gal: 5:22).

Name the fruits of the Holy Spirit and make simple links between the lives of some saints or holy people and how the fruits of the Holy Spirit were shown in their lives.

Discern

By the end of this unit of study, pupils will be able to talk and think critically and creatively about what they have studied, for example, through:

Saying what they wonder about the story of the appearance of the resurrected Jesus to the apostles (Luke 24:3 -53)

Saying what they are imagining about how the apostles were feeling at the Ascension (Acts 1:6 -11)

Saying what they wonder about the story of Saul.

Sharing their personal response to different symbols of the Holy Spirit (wind, fire, dove) in art and say why they respond in that way, making links with images studied in previous branches (e.g., Taizé representations of the Holy Spirit, Marlene Scholz's 'Blessed Trinity').

Saying what they wonder about the fruits of the Holy Spirit.

Listening to and asking questions about the stories and examples of a saint whose life shows examples of peace in the world.

Respond

During this unit of study, pupils will be invited to respond to their learning, for example by:

Hearing the words of Come Holy Spirit and thinking about what it means to open your heart to God.

Considering why many people pray and share stories of prayer from different religious communities as appropriate.

Considering how the fruits of the Holy Spirit could transform their own lives and through them, help the lives of others in their family and wider community.

Pupil Voice- How can the Holy Spirit change us?
